Tasting Notes

The 2015 Ektimo Dry Creek Zinfandel comes from the brighter side of the hill. Not particularly "jammy or peppery", this is a party Zin good for any occasion. Bristling with Sonoma County flair this is a bright and playful styling of the varietal that is easy going and great for any occasion. A wild rush of berry essence will tantalize your taste buds and tickle your fancy the wine is ripe and juicy with fine briary aromas and wild berry flavors that explode on the palate, followed by a soft and fuzzy tannin that is just like it sounds.
