Tasting Notes

Ripe, wild berry aromas emerge gently, and blossom into the concentrated scent of Blueberry jam accented by pink peppercorn overtones. An elegant echo of these qualities persists on the palate as the array of berry tones tickles the taste buds, followed by an essence of tart, candied red apple and black tea that meanders into the dry tannin finish. It bears all the characteristics and brightness typical of the Russian River cool climate Zinfandel that sets it apart from the power zins of the warmer regions.
